Some quack in Chicago sent to one of our bill-posters for circulation a lot of obscene pamphlets setting forth his business. Quite a large number were distributed on Monday, but on Tuesday, when the character of the book was brought to the notice of the Mayor he ordered the Marshal to burn those remaining undistributed. Mr. Tressler thereupon captured and burned quite a large quantity. The fellow who will deliberately and openly publish and send broadcast such obscene stuff is a fit subject for a coat of tar and feathers, and then set fire to. This Chicago quack should be made an example of.

THE OIL MAN.—Many people already know where to find the Oil Man, but for fear that there are a few who do not know, we will state that he is to be found at all times at Saur's Drug and Paint Store. He is there with a great, large stock of all the different kinds and grades of machine oils, such as dark Engine Oil, West Virginia Oil, Golden Oil, No. 1 and 2 Lard Oil, Summer and Winter Strained Sperm Oil, Castor Oil, etc., in fact all the different kinds in general use, and at the very lowest prices which they can be bought at anywhere. Recollect that he warrants every gallon to be precisely as represented and to give satisfaction in every case.

The game law is now in force. Have you paid your game taxes?

Tuesday was the longest day of the year.

Call and hear the chimes of the clock bells at Fisk's Jewelry Store, opposite Ritter Block.

Farmers, bring your repairing to the wagon shop of M. Boyer, South Napoleon. Prices low and work prompt.

A fire in Waltaire's grocery on Tuesday night destroyed a show case and nearly all the articles it contained. Loss about $30. The supposition is that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion.—Defiance Flag.

The Detroit excursion given by the Napoleon Light Guards on Tuesday proved a pleasant affair, although the inclement weather deterred many from going. We have not learned whether the boys are "out" or "in" pocket, but we hope they were repaid for their efforts to amuse.

We understand David Emmell and wife, while buggy riding, were caught in the storm Thursday, near the residence of Mr. Reiter on the south side. Their buggy was blown over and Mrs. Emmell was carried quite a distance by the force of the wind, but no serious injury was sustained.

The corner stone of the new Catholic Church in this place was laid with appropriate ceremony on last Sabbath, in the presence of a large concourse of people from all over this and adjoining counties, and many strangers from remote parts of the State. Our Catholic friends may well feel proud of the favorable auspices in which their enterprise starts out. The new edifice will be an ornament to Napoleon. An extended notice of the exercises will be given next week.

The entertainment and festival given by the M. E. Church last Friday evening was a very pleasant affair, and was enjoyed by a large number of persons. The voting resulted as follows: The most popular young man at the festival: R. W. Cahill 202½ votes; Chas. Condit 121½ votes. The most popular young lady at the festival: Miss Kate Wilson 152½ votes; Miss Alta Suydam 105 votes, and Miss Elma Richards 67 votes. Mr. Cahill received a beautiful vest chain and Miss Wilson a neck chain, as prizes. The net proceeds of the evening were $125.41. In this connection the officers and members of the Church wish to return thanks to those who aided so faithfully in making the entertainment a success, both socially and financially.

ANOTHER SHOOTING SCRAPE.—On last Saturday morning at about 2 o'clock, while several young men were passing what is known as the "Monkey House," they were fired upon with a shot-gun by Gust. Trone, the proprietor, shot taking effect in the faces of Oscar Evers, an employee of this office, and Sherman Teeple, a boy of all work at the Merchant's Hotel. Trone was arrested and arraigned before Squire Peyton on Saturday, but being under the influence of liquor he was remanded to jail until the Tuesday morning following, when he had a hearing. Upon the evidence adduced at the hearing he was bound over to the Court of Common Pleas in the sum of $1100 to answer to the charge of shooting with intent to kill. Sherman was hurt but slightly, but Evers received one of the shot in his right eye, which may destroy the sight. The escape was narrow, and should be a lesson to boys prowling around at late hours of the night.

Here is a good chance for lads who would like to save their country and at the same time sail the bonnie blue seas. Next September twenty-five cadet engineers for service in the navy will be appointed, by competitive examination held at Annapolis, and any American boy between the years of fifteen and twenty years of age has a right to contest for one of the cadetships. No candidate should present himself at Annapolis, however, unless he is well versed in elementary English branches—grammar, geography, algebra, geometry and natural philosophy. The successful candidates rank with the cadet midshipmen, and their pay is the same, $500 a year. Having thought very seriously over the matter and decided to become a candidate, a boy should write to the Secretary of the Navy for a pamphlet of particulars, and then he should spend the summer in earnest study of the necessary branches.

A TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE MOON. DENVER, CO., June 17, 1881.

ED. NORTHWEST.—Perhaps the most hardened villain and dreaded man in Colorado (Jim Moon by name), was shot and instantly killed in a saloon, on Larimer Street, this city, yesterday at 11 o'clock a.m., by Clay Wilson, a Faro Dealer in the defunct Luminary's gambling house. A slight description of this Lunar body which so suddenly collapsed may be of interest. Moon came to Colorado some five or six years ago, and has been the terror of the town ever since. He has killed three men in Denver, but always managed to defeat the hand of justice. A short time ago he defied the whole police force to arrest him, and with a brace of six shooters in his hand walked off, and not a man dared follow him. Wilson, the slayer of Moon, came here from Leadville about four weeks ago and worked for Moon as stated above. They had some words the night before, when Moon thrust a revolver in Wilson's face and threatened to kill him; Wilson begged off, and yesterday morning they met in the Arcade. Moon began on Wilson again and reached for his revolver, but he never got it out, Wilson was too quick for him and fired four bullets into him quicker than I can write it. Two took effect just below the heart, another through the neck and the fourth through the hip. Moon died instantly. His body was taken to the morgue and Wilson to jail. Old Jim stood off the whole Pacific force, but he could not stand off the Corner, who went to prospecting in the Moon for lead, he found four good leads which netted him about $20. It has been said of those men of the West that they would go prospecting any place that they could make a strike, but this is the first instance where they ever struck lead in the Moon; NAPOLEON ABROAD.

CORRESPONDENCE.

A CARD.

I have been reliably informed that certain parties who are opposed to my nomination and election as Representative of Henry county, are circulating a report that it elected I would favor the issuing of more Henry County Court House Bonds. The county have already authority to issue all the bonds that are necessary to fully complete and discharge all contracts for said Court House and Jail. And should I be favored with the nomination and election, will strenuously oppose in the Legislature any attempt for the additional issue of County Bonds, or further increase of the indebtedness of our county.

CHAS. HORNUNG.

ED. NORTHWEST.—Permit me to correct a mistake under which many labor in regard to the length of time that Mr. B. W. Pennock has served as Infirmary Director. Mr. Pennock has not had two terms. He filled a vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Lingel, of one year, and one full term of three years. While I believe in rotation in office, I also think that a faithful and competent person is entitled to two terms.

A DEMOCRAT.

NAPOLEON, June 16, 1881.

I hereby certify that the Ohio Farmer's Insurance Co. have this day adjusted and paid in full the insurance on my farm house that was burnt April 21st, 1881. Also, that this is the second loss paid to me in full, by said company, and it is my belief that the Ohio Farmer's Insurance Co. affords the cheapest and safest insurance on farm property of any Company in the United States. The gentlemanly adjuster and agents have my sincere thanks.

N. H. HARTMAN.

The following card, which has been sent to all members of the Association of the 6th O. V. I., whose post-office address is known, explains itself:

TOLEDO, O., June 14, 1881.

Comrades:—The 23rd day of July being the anniversary of the death of Major-General James B. McPherson, has been selected by the committee of the "Society of the Army of the Tennessee" and the citizens of Clyde, O., as the day upon which the monument over McPherson's grave will be unveiled and dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. A large number of the surviving officers and men of the Army of the Tennessee and other distinguished persons have signified their intention of being at Clyde on this interesting occasion. A number of the 68th Ohio have expressed their desire of going to Clyde on the 23rd day of July, but disliked to give up the pleasure of being at the annual reunion of our regiment at Defiance to be held on the same day, and have suggested a postponement of our reunion. After correspondence with some of our comrades at Napoleon, Defiance, Antwerp and Bryan, it has been decided to postpone our proposed meeting to be held at Defiance, on the 23rd of July, 1881, for one year from that day—to the 23rd of July, A. D., 1882, thus enabling such of us as may desire to go to Clyde and by our presence pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the brave McPherson, and reserving the Defiance reunion until next year, where it is hoped we shall have the pleasure of greeting you.

Truly your friend,

Geo. E. WELLES,

President of the Society of the Survivors of the 68th O. V. I.

S. GILLIS, Secretary.
